

One monotone anchor and smooth trajectories: true $M = 3$

300 samples; 20 features per ordering. Lines: true signals. Points: noisy observations.

Replicate 1 in each condition. The first feature is the monotone anchor; the next two are smooth nonmonotone trajectories. Lines show noiseless signals; points show all 300 observations. Axes share the same scales across all figures.