

Simulated trajectories and observations: true M = 5

300 samples; 12 features per ordering. Lines: true signals. Points: noisy observations.

Replicate 1 in each condition; the first three features of each group are shown.

Conditions use independent datasets, so their generating curves also differ. Axes share the same scales across all figures.