

Observed feature geometry: replicate 6

Points: noisy observations | Black line: noiseless generating curve

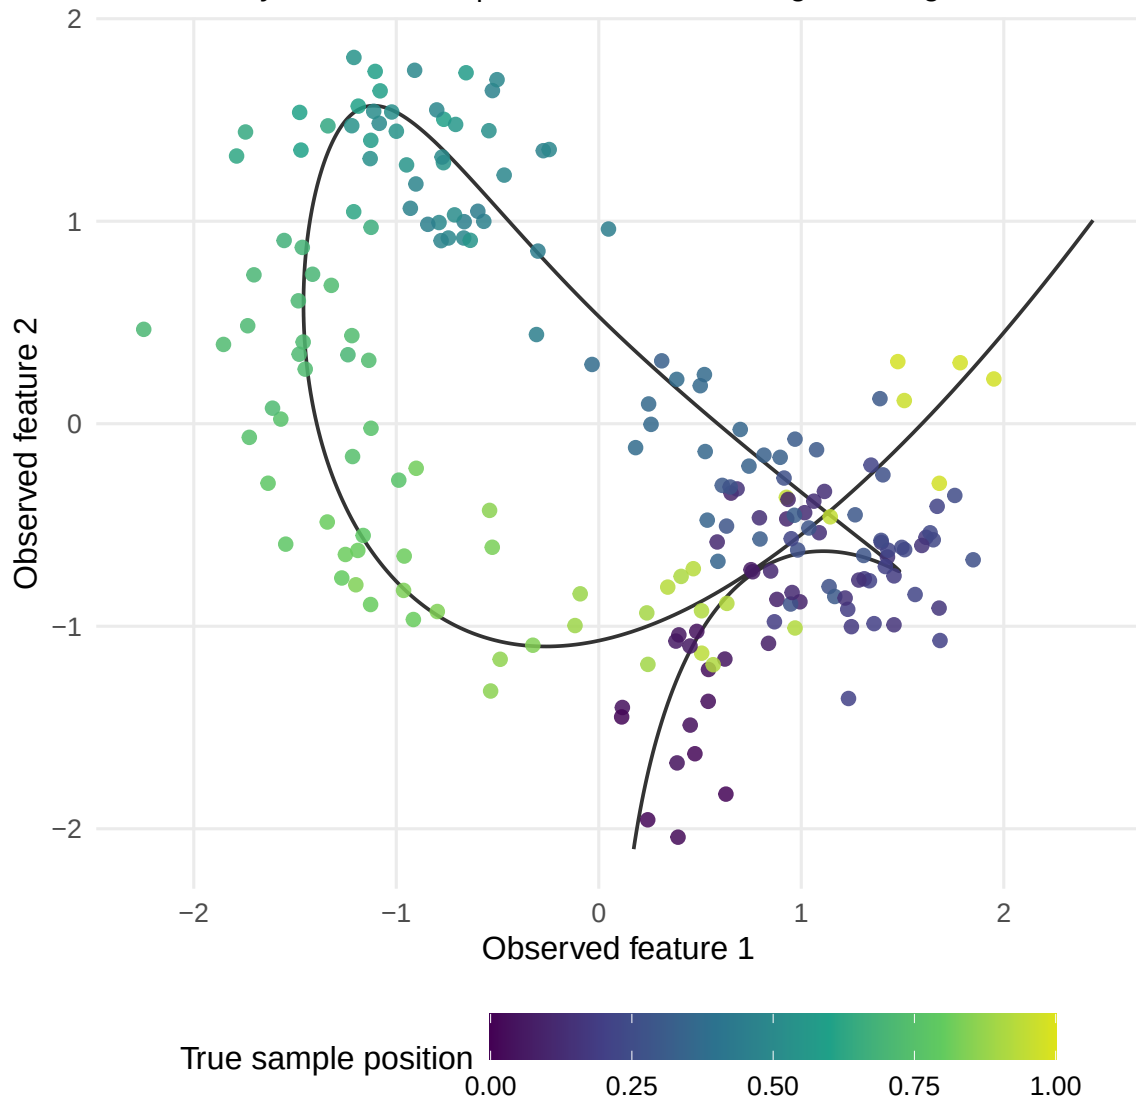

Figure 1. Two observed features for the selected $N=200$, $P=2$ dataset. Colors identify true positions along the shared generating curve; the black line traces that curve in increasing true-position order. Independent observation-noise SD is 0.25.