

Six two-feature projections of the four-feature curve: replicate 6

Colors: true positions | Gray lines: noiseless generating trajectories

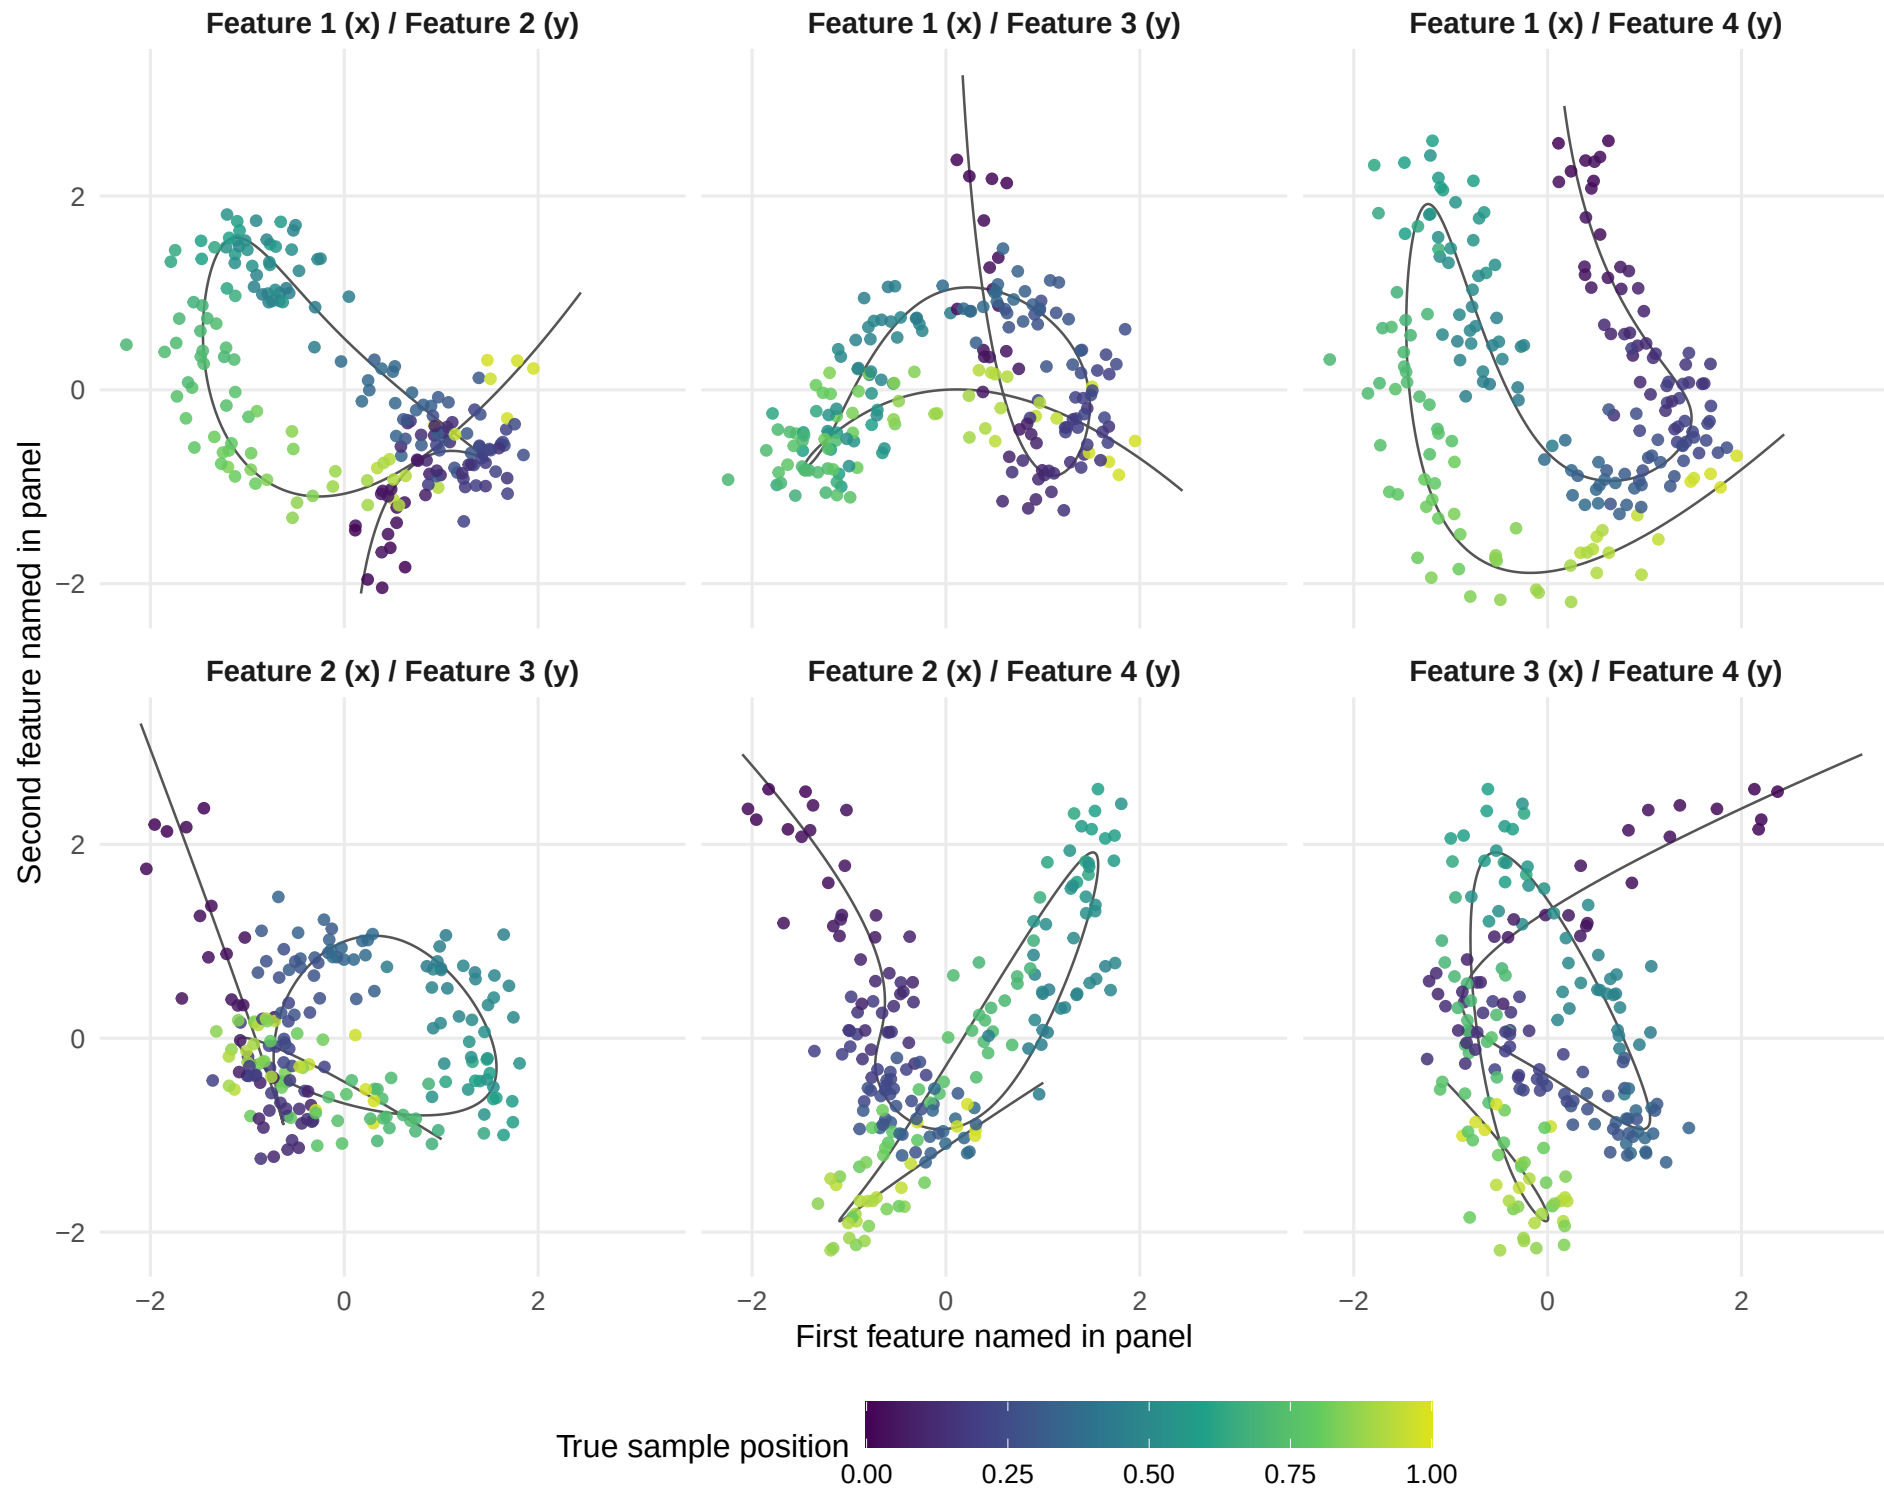

Figure 3. All six pairwise projections of the same $P=4$ observations, with named horizontal/vertical features. The first two features and their noise are unchanged from $P=2$. The added independent trajectories provide extra joint information even when individual two-feature projections have crossings or close approaches. Axes share observed-feature units.